

Thank you for your interest in Young Living Essential Oils,

If you are already a member of Young Living, please disregard this message.

If you are not a member - please read on for important details about becoming a member.

Becoming a member of Young Living (YL) is pretty straight forward, and I'll define the 3 types of memberships below. If you decide to become a Young Living member, please click the "join now" link at the bottom of this message.

Most people are familiar with Costco or Sam's Clubs which are the largest two membership warehouse clubs in the world. Costco is the fifth largest general retailer in the United States. Like Costco, Young Living offers different levels of membership. The level with the most benefits is called Independent Distributor.

Independent Distributor

Also referred to as Wholesale Membership. With this option, you pay the lowest price for your products and can take advantage of monthly specials. There is NO requirement to distribute products OR make a monthly purchase. There is a one-time fee to setup your wholesale account. Note: Costco members have an annual fee - Young Living members have a one-time (no annual) fee. In addition to the savings, wholesale buyers may earn 10%-20% rebates on every purchase. Note: Costco Executive members earn 3% rebates. Additionally, if interested, independent distributors can participate in an affiliate referral program.

Retail Customer:

With this option, you will pay full price for all Young Living Products - up to 35% more than Independent Distributors. Benefits include FREE sign up, and there is NO requirement to distribute products OR make a monthly purchase. You will receive email announcements of company product specials including buy one – get one free opportunities.

Preferred Customer:

With this option, you will receive a 12% savings on all products. There is a requirement to purchase at least $50.00 worth of products every month. In addition to the savings, preferred customers can earn an additional 10% - 20% reward (a rebate) back on every monthly order plus FLAT RATE shipping. Rebates are redeemable towards future FREE products.
